Q1: We got an invitation to bid on the need for a sit to stand for Southeastern Veterans Center in Spring City Pa. It looks like they request is for a “Rena 440lb sit to stand” We manufacture our own sit to stand and ours are 400lb, 500lb or 800lb. My question is does it have to be the “Rena” style or is that just your reference you are using?

A: The items listed in this bid represent a specific requirement of the Department. No substitutions will be accepted for the make, model, manufacturer or specifications that are specified.

Q2: Is there a certain kind of patient lifts that you looking for?

A: We are specifically looking for the item listed in the bid, the Rena 440 EE 440lb Lift.
