General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

For a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. Enter the LLC's name on the "Business name" line.

For an LLC classified as a partnership or a corporation, enter the LLC's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

7. A foreign central bank of issue,
8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

13. A financial institution,
14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

¹See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

²However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

Call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you think your identity has been used inappropriately for tax purposes.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS personal property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT(438-4338).

THIS AGREEMENT, dated _____, 2014, is entered into by and between the COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL SERVICES, 500 North Office Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17125, hereinafter referred to as "Seller",

AND

_____, _____, _____,
_____, _____, hereinafter referred to as "Buyer".

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, Act 48 of 1981 authorizes the Department of General Services to convey title to the property; and

WHEREAS, Seller desires to sell to Buyer the property, containing 5,234 S.F. ± and improvements containing approximately 1,440 S.F. ±, known as the former "State Correctional Institution Chester Staff Residence", located in the City of Chester, County of Delaware, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as described in the attached legal description, made a part hereof, and marked as Exhibit "A", hereinafter referred to as the "Premises"; and

WHEREAS, Buyer desires to purchase the Premises from Seller;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the Premises and the mutual covenants and promises herein contained and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereto promise, covenant and agree as follows:

EXAMPLE:

- (1) Consideration. The purchase price is $50,000.00, which shall be paid to Seller by Buyer as follows:
- | | | |
|----|---|---------------------|
| a. | A two percent (2%) bid guarantee which has already been paid | $ 1,000.00 |
| b. | Cash or certified check within five (5) business days after Buyer receives this fully executed Agreement (5% of purchase price) | $ 2,500.00 |
| c. | Cash, certified check or cashier's check at time of final Settlement and delivery of the Deed | $ 46,500.00 |
| | Total | $ 50,000.00 |

The Comptroller of the Department of General Services, pending Settlement, shall hold the 7% deposit in escrow.

- (2) Closing. Time is hereby agreed to be of the essence. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties, closing shall occur within ninety (90) calendar days from the execution of this Agreement by the Secretary of General Services. The date the Secretary of General Services executes this Agreement shall establish the "Execution Date."
- (3) Default of Buyer. Should Buyer violate or fail to fulfill and perform any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement, then and in that case, any and all sums paid by Buyer under this Agreement may be retained in full by Seller as liquidated damages for such breach. In such event, both parties shall be released from further liability or obligation hereunder, and this Agreement shall become null and void.
- (4) Default of Seller. In the event that title to the Premises cannot be conveyed by Seller to Buyer at settlement in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement or closing does not occur as provided herein or Seller is otherwise in default in the performance of the provisions hereof, Buyer may either (a) disregard such default and perform this Agreement by accepting said title and the Premises in such condition as Seller can convey without abatement in price, or (b) rescind this Agreement and recover all sums paid on account of the Purchase Price without interest. In the latter event, there shall be absolutely no further liability or obligation by either party hereunder, and this Agreement shall become null and void.
- (5) Transfer Taxes. Seller is exempt by law from paying realty transfer taxes. Such exemption shall not relieve Buyer from liability for realty transfer tax. The realty transfer tax due in connection with the transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by Buyer at Settlement.
- (6) Real Estate Taxes. Seller is exempt from the payment of real estate taxes. Such exemption shall not relieve Buyer from liability for the entire tax upon transfer of title to the Premises.

- (7) Utilities. Water, sewer, and electrical charges, if any, shall be apportioned between the parties as of the date of final settlement.
- (8) Warranties. The title is to be good and marketable and such as will be insured by any responsible title insurance company, licensed to do business in Pennsylvania, at regular rates, and the Premises shall be conveyed to Buyer by Special Warranty Deed warranting said Premises to be free from all liens and encumbrances, except as may be otherwise herein stated, but to be subject to all existing restrictions, easements, recorded agreements and covenants, rights of public service companies, easements of road, zoning regulations, ordinances, statutes and regulations of any constituted public authority, now in force or which may be passed prior to final settlement.
- (9) Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions.
- (A) The deed of conveyance shall contain the following covenant:
- “RESERVING AND EXCEPTING therein and thereout of all the oil, gas and mineral rights unto the GRANTOR herein, its successor and assigns in accordance with Section 2405-A(6) of the Administrative Code of 1929, as amended, 71 P.S. §651.5(6). The provisions of this paragraph shall run with the land in perpetuity.”
- (B) To Seller’s knowledge, the zoning classification of the Premises is R-1, Residential.
- (C) Buyer acknowledges that this Agreement is subject to final execution by the Office of General Counsel, Office of Attorney General and Secretary of General Services and that until properly signed, executed and approved by these officials or their authorized designees, the Purchase Agreement will not be valid.
- (10) Costs. Seller agrees to prepare the Deed. All costs and expenses relating to Buyer's title examination or the purchase of title insurance shall be the sole responsibility of the Buyer.
- (11) Assignment. Buyer may not assign its rights hereunder.
- (12) Condition of Premises. Buyer acknowledges that it has entered into this Agreement with the knowledge that the Premises will be acquired on an “as is” basis, that it has had the opportunity to inspect the Premises, and that said Premises are being purchased as a result of said inspection and not as a result of any advertisement, hand bill or representation, either oral or written, made by the Seller. Buyer agrees that Seller and its employees shall not be liable for any error in any advertisement, hand bill or announcement made by Seller or its employees, nor for any agreement, condition, representation or stipulation, oral or written, not specifically set forth herein.
- (13) Care of Premises.
- (A) Between the Execution Date and the date of Closing, Seller shall perform all customary and ordinary repairs to the Premises as Seller customarily previously performed, so as to maintain it in substantially the same condition as it is as of the Execution Date, as such condition shall be changed by wear and tear, damage by fire or other casualty or by eminent domain. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall have no obligation to make any structural or extraordinary repairs or capital improvements to the Premises between the Execution Date and the date of Settlement.

- (B) From and after the date of this Agreement until the date of Closing, the Seller shall materially comply with all state and municipal laws, ordinances, regulations and orders or notices of violations relating to the subject Premises, except that compliance may be postponed while Seller is in good faith contesting the validity of said orders or notices.
- (14) Risk of Loss. Risk of loss shall remain with Seller until Settlement. In the event of material damage to the Premises that affects the value of the Premises by fire or other casualty, Buyer shall have the option of terminating this Agreement or accepting the Premises in its then condition by paying a reduced purchase price if the parties can mutually agree upon a reduced purchase price.
- (15) Miscellaneous.
- (A) Seller agrees to furnish to the Buyer all title data which Seller may have, including but not limited to deeds, maps, surveys, plans, abstracts, title reports and title policies.
- (B) Buyer shall receive possession of the Premises at the time of closing by delivery of the Deed. Immediately following settlement, or at a time convenient to the Buyer subsequent to settlement, arrangements shall be made to change the locks at the expense of the Buyer. Prior to Settlement, Buyer shall have the right, at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice to Seller, to enter upon the Premises for purposes of inspecting the Premises or any conditions existing thereon.
- (C) Neither party hereto has dealt with or through any real estate broker or agent in connection with this transaction. In the event that any real estate broker or agent claims a commission as a result of this transaction, the party with whom said broker or agent allegedly dealt shall have the responsibility for defending against and, if unsuccessful, paying the claim of such broker or agent.
- (16) Recording. This Agreement shall not be recorded by Seller or Buyer in the Recorder of Deeds of Delaware County or other public office of record.
- (17) Right-to-Know.
- (A) The Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law, 65 P.S. §§ 67.101-3104, applies to this Agreement.
- (B) Unless the Buyer provides the Commonwealth, in writing, with the name and contact information of another person, the agency shall notify the Buyer using the Buyer information provided by the Buyer or the legal contact information provided in this Agreement if the agency needs the Buyer's assistance in any matter arising out of the Right to Know Law. The Buyer shall notify the agency in writing of any change in the name or the contact information within a reasonable time prior to the change.
- (C) Upon notification from the Commonwealth that the Commonwealth requires the Buyer's assistance in responding to a RTKL request for records in the Buyer's possession, the Buyer shall provide the Commonwealth, within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such notification, access to, and copies of, any document or information in the Buyer's possession which arises out of the Agreement that the Commonwealth requests ("Requested Information") and provide such other assistance as the Commonwealth may request in order to comply with the RTKL. If the Buyer fails to provide the Requested Information to the Commonwealth within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such notification the Buyer shall pay, indemnify and hold the Commonwealth harmless for any damages, penalties, detriment or harm that the Commonwealth may incur as a result of the Buyer's failure, including any statutory damages assessed against the Commonwealth.

- (D) The Commonwealth's determination as to whether the Requested Information is a public record is dispositive of the question as between the parties. Buyer agrees not to challenge the Commonwealth's decision to deem the Requested Information a Public Record. If the Buyer considers the Requested Information to be a Trade Secret or Confidential Proprietary Information, as those terms are defined by the RTKL, the Buyer will immediately notify the Commonwealth, and will provide a written statement signed by a representative of the Buyer explaining why the requested material is exempt from public disclosure under the RTKL within seven (7) calendar days. If, upon review of the Buyer's written statement, the Commonwealth still decides to provide the Requested Information, Buyer will not challenge or in any way hold liable the Commonwealth for such a decision.
 - (E) The Commonwealth will reimburse the Buyer for any costs associated with complying with this provision only to the extent allowed under the fee schedule established by the Office of Open Records or as otherwise provided by the RTKL if the fee schedule is inapplicable.
 - (F) The Buyer agrees to abide by any decision to release a record to the public made by the Office of Open Records, or by the Pennsylvania Courts. The Buyer agrees to waive all rights or remedies that may be available to it as a result of the Commonwealth's disclosure of Requested Information pursuant to the RTKL. Buyer's duties relating to the RTKL are continuing duties that survive the expiration of this Agreement and shall continue as long as the Buyer has Requested Information in its possession.
- (18) Subsequent Liens and Ordinances. Any notices or ordinances filed subsequent to the date of settlement by any governing authority for which a lien could be filed are to be complied with at the expense of the Buyer, provided that Buyer takes title hereunder. Any such notices or ordinances filed before the date of settlement are to be complied with at the expense of the Seller.
- (19) Representations and Warranties of Seller. Seller, to induce Buyer to enter into this Agreement and to complete settlement, makes the following representations and warranties to Buyer, which representations and warranties are true and correct as of the date of this Agreement, and shall be true and correct at and as of the date of settlement in all respects as though such representations and warranties were made both at and as of the date of this Agreement, and at and as of the date of settlement.
- (A) Seller has not received any notice from any insurance company which has issued a policy with respect to the Premises or from any board of fire underwriters (or other body exercising similar functions) claiming any defects or deficiencies in the Premises or suggesting or requesting the performance of any repairs, alterations or other work to the Premises.
 - (B) There are no leases, service equipment, supply, security, maintenance, or other agreements with respect to or affecting the Premises, which shall be binding upon Buyer or with respect to the Premises from and after the date of Settlement.
 - (C) There is no action, suit or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Seller, threatened against or affecting Seller with respect to the Premises or any portion thereof or relating to or arising out of the ownership, management or operation of the Premises, in any court or before or by any federal, state, county or municipal department, commission, board, bureau or agency or other governmental instrumentality.

3 The Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law (68 P.S. §7301 et seq.) requires that a seller of a property must disclose to a buyer all known
4 material defects about the property being sold that are not readily observable. While the Law requires certain disclosures, this disclo-
5 sure statement covers common topics beyond the basic requirements of the Law in an effort to assist sellers in complying with disclo-
6 sure requirements and to assist buyers in evaluating the property being considered. Sellers who wish to see or use the basic disclosure
7 form can find the form on the Web site of the Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission.

8 This Statement discloses Seller's knowledge of the condition of the property as of the date signed by Seller and is not a substitute
9 for any inspections or warranties that Buyer may wish to obtain. This Statement is not a warranty of any kind by Seller or a war-
10 ranty or representation by any listing real estate broker, any selling real estate broker, or their licensees. Buyer is encouraged to address
11 concerns about the conditions of the property that may not be included in this Statement. This Statement does not relieve Seller of the 12 obligation to disclose a material defect that may not be addressed on this form.

13 A Material Defect is a problem with a residential real property or any portion of it that would have a significant adverse impact on the 14 value of the property or that involves an unreasonable risk to people on the property. The fact that a structural element, system or sub-
15 system is at or beyond the end of the normal useful life of such a structural element, system or subsystem is not by itself a material defect.
