Background

Studies indicate that one in five undergraduate college students is balancing the responsibilities of raising children while pursuing a postsecondary education¹ and almost half of these students do not earn a degree².

Parenting students bear significant burdens and need additional support to navigate through their academic program successfully. In December 2022, the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services (DHS) released a policy report³ following consultations with parenting students, postsecondary institution staff, subject matter experts, various state agencies, and community leaders. The Parent Pathways Learning Network (PPLN) concentrated on addressing the necessary support for food, childcare, housing, and financial aid. The results underscored the importance of integrating the firsthand experiences of parenting students into statewide policymaking. Governor Shapiro, in support of these findings, reallocated $1.61 million in his 2025-2026 budget to support these students.

The Parent Pathways grant provides funding to institutions to directly support the persistence of these students in the form of tuition assistance, emergency funding, and wrap-around services.

Institution Eligibility

For the purposes of this grant, “institution” shall include postsecondary institutions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with authorization to award an associate degree or higher academic degree, as defined in section 2001-J of the Public-School Code of 1949, as amended (24 P.S. §20-2001-J) and private licensed schools, as defined in the Act of December 15, 1986 (P.L. 1585, NO. 174). Only one proposal will be accepted from each institution. Applicants may not apply as a consortium. Only the main campus may apply, and funds can be disseminated to branches as the institution deems appropriate if awarded.

Institutions must be in a current good standing with PDE, including the completion/approval of all previous Final Expenditure Reports for any previous grant awards with PDE.

Proposals submitted by prior award winners should demonstrate how the program sustains or builds upon and enhances initiatives implemented by the institution in previous years. This would include providing qualitative and quantitative data, as available.

Priority of awarded program funds must be specific to Pennsylvania resident learners.

Parenting guidelines include biological and or legally dependent children, as defined by the United States tax code (under the age of 19 or 24 if a full-time student, or any age if permanently disabled, or a qualifying relative)⁴.

For priority consideration, institutions must be committed to serving parent learners by demonstrating that the campus has a proven network of resources and can show data and strong outcomes OR demonstrate the campus is actively working toward launching resources and programming in the upcoming year and can provide details of their upcoming work. Data and plans should be submitted in the uploads section of eGrants.

Funding and Eligible Programs

The 2026 Parent Pathways Grant offers institutions the opportunity to apply for competitive funding not to exceed $150,000.

Students receiving awarded program funds must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and all gift aid is to be exhausted prior to utilizing funding. Final reporting will include a completed spreadsheet identifying the student’s cost of attendance or gift aid as well as certification that funds were utilized to meet the Cost of Attendance (COA), which includes tuition, fees, housing, meals, books, and childcare. This includes all scholarships or emergency funded students.

Funds may be expended only on eligible programs, activities, and purposes identified in the proposal and approved by OPHE. Funds must be expended during the grant period and cannot be rolled over into a new grant year.

Funding requests can include a combination of any eligible program described in this request for application. Funding is not guaranteed to any applicant.
