To All Suppliers:

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania defines a solicitation “Addendum” as an addition to or amendment of the original terms, conditions, specifications, or instructions of a procurement solicitation (e.g., Invitation for Bids or Request for Proposals).

The Issuing Office received the following questions regarding the above-referenced RFP and provides the following responses:

Q.1. Please advise if firms can submit proposals for both financings (i.e., both the 1. new money series and refunding series and 2. refunding series only) or if we need to select one or the other.

A.1. Firms can submit proposals for both the new money and the refunding series, and for just the refunding series.

Q.2. If we’re able to submit for both, do we need to provide separate Technical, SDB, and VBE Submittals for each deal; or is it sufficient to submit separate Cost Submittals for each deal, but only one Technical, SDB, and VBE Submittal that apply to both?

A.2. If the bond team the firm is proposing to use is the same team for both series of bonds, then they only need to submit one technical proposal and two separate cost proposals (one for each series of bonds). If the firm is proposing one team for the new money and refunding series, but a separate team for the refunding only series, then they will need to submit two separate technical proposals and two separate cost proposals. The SDB and VBE submittal only needs to be submitted once and will apply to both.

If you asked a question, and do not see your question listed, please let me know right away so we can get you a response as soon as possible.

Except as clarified and amended by this Addendum, the terms, conditions, specifications, and instructions of the solicitation and any previous solicitation addenda, remain as originally written.

Respectfully,
