

For information purposes:

Armstrong County plans to utilize the source pickup lines first and then move to the delivery lines. The estimated time that deliveries would commence is late May while source pickup would begin around the original projected date of May