

ITB #	Title	Revised	Type	Summary/Comment
ACC001	IT Accessibility Policy	3/16/2006	Policy	Applications should be compliant with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1998. Note that these standards (as well as the ITB) are in the process of being revised.
APP035	Internet Browser Policy	11/25/2009	Policy	Sets standard for commonwealth desktop browsers per STD-APP035A. Applications should support these browsers at a minimum.
STD-APP035A	Internet Browser Product Standards	11/25/2009	Standard	Internet Explorer 6,7; Mozilla, Firefox, Opera, Internet Explorer 8
APP036	Office Productivity Software Policy	11/25/2009	Policy	Sets standard for commonwealth desktop office products per STD-APP036A. Reporting to the commonwealth should follow these standards.
STD-APP036A	Office Productivity Product Standards	11/25/2009	Standard	Microsoft Office 2007 products. Older versions are to be retired
APP037	Document Viewer and Reader Policy	11/25/2009	Policy	Sets standard for commonwealth desktop office viewers per STD-APP037A. Reporting to the commonwealth should follow these standards.
STD-APP036A	Document Viewer and Reader Product Standards	11/25/2009	Standard	Document viewers...Microsoft Office 2007 viewers as well as Adobe Acrobat Reader 8.13 and higher.
INF001	Database Management Systems	4/17/2009	Policy	Vendor should use an appropriate database managements system though not necessarily the commonwealth product standards for this.
INF002	Metadata Standards	8/17/2007	Policy	Vendor should use appropriate metadata standards though not necessarily the commonwealth product standards for this.
INF003	Data Modeling Standards	8/2/2005	Policy	Vendor should use appropriate data modeling standards though not necessarily the commonwealth product standards for this.
INFRM006	Electronic Documents Management Systems	9/17/2007	Policy	Vendor should use an appropriate EDMS for the project and other pertinent documentation though not necessarily the commonwealth product standards for this.
PRV001	Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Electronic Information Privacy Policy	1/18/2007	Policy	Vendor should comply with all pertinent federal and state privacy regulations (HIPAA, etc.)
SEC001	Enterprise Host Security Software Suite Standards and Policy	8/26/2008	Policy	Vendor should protect their systems with anti-virus, host intrusion protection, incident response monitoring and reporting, system and application patch management though not necessarily the commonwealth product standards for this.
SEC004	Enterprise Web Application Firewall	1/15/2010	Policy	Vendor should install appropriate web application firewall though not necessarily the commonwealth's product standard for this.
SEC007	Minimum Standards for User ID's and Passwords	9/7/2006	Policy	Vendor should comply with minimum user ID, password, account locking, and time-out standards specified in RFD-SEC007A.
RFD-SEC007A	Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Detailed Windows Password Policy	10/16/2009	Policy	Detailed user ID, password, account locking, and time-out standards specified in RFD-SEC007A.
SEC010	Virtual Private Networks	2/24/2010	Policy	If vendor needs VPN between commonwealth and their systems, these policies should be followed.
SEC011	Enterprise Policy and software Standards for Agency Firewalls	1/31/2002	Policy	Vendor should install appropriate network firewalls though not necessarily the commonwealth's product standard for this.

SEC019	Policy and procedures for Protecting Commonwealth Electronic Data	12/14/2009	Policy	Definition of "C" classification of data...generally Health Information would be considered "C" data. Data should not be stored on non-approved devices or in non-approved facilities; encryption is required for storage and transmission.
SEC020	Encryption Standards for Data at Rest	9/17/2009	Policy	Vendor should encrypt "C" classification data while at rest.
SEC024	IT Security Incident Reporting Policy	9/21/2007	Policy	Vendor should report security incidents to the commonwealth CISO as well as comply with state and federal data breach notifications regulations.
SEC031	Encryption Standards for Data in Transit	9/17/2009	Policy	Vendor should encrypt "C" classification data while in transit. (SEC019)
SEC034	Enterprise Firewall Rule Set	8/26/2008	Policy	Information only: what firewall ports beyond ports 80 and 443 are required to be opened for the vendor's application.
SYM003	Off-site Storage for Commonwealth Agencies	12/19/2006	Policy	Vendor should provide appropriate offsite storage following practices outlined here for distance, environment, etc.
SYM006	Desktop and Server Software Patching Policy	11/25/2009	Policy	Vendor should apply system and application patches per the schedule contained in this ITB.